A CITY FROM THE PAST

This is a picture of Jeddah in the year 1890. It was very different then. It was a small fishing town. There weren't any shopping centres or big hotels, but there were many souqs.

There were also fishing boats. There weren't cars back then, but there were camels. The streets of Jeddah weren't noisy. They were quiet.

Saleh

Yesterday morning, I was at Salam Park in Riyadh with my father and my friend, Sami. It was great! It was sunny and there were many people at the park. There was a mosque, a big lake and many palm trees! There were restaurants, too. There was a great playground, a train ride and horses! There were many children at the park. They were very happy!

Jim

Chester Zoo is in the UK. I was there on Thursday afternoon with my family! There were elephants, bears, lions, zebras, monkeys, parrots, snakes, crocodiles and other animals! There weren't any cows or sheep. There were restaurants in Chester Zoo. There was also a shop with toys, books and interesting DVDs about animals.
